Meeting at 9:00 in Piazza Verdi, at the foot of the steps of the Teatro Massimo to admire the imposing structure of the largest Opera House in Italy.

A few steps away you will enter the heart of the historic U Capu market where history, tradition and street food mix with the voices and faces of the people of Palermo. There hides a newly restored Baroque jewel, the church of the Immaculate Conception.

Through alleys and ancient buildings, you are at the Norman cathedral where the remains of Frederick II of Swabia and the silver "Vara" of Santa Rosalia are.

Between the gardens of the Villa Bonanno and the ancient Roman ruins of Paleopoli you will be at the Royal or Norman Palace which preserves 3000 years of our history and the splendid mosaics of the Palatine chapel where Arabs, Byzantines and Normans shared knowledge, esoteric secrets, life and customs in great tolerance.

Walking along the ancient fortifications you will photograph San Giovanni degli Eremiti, a suggestive Arab-Norman architecture with its particular domes.

Discovering medieval quarters, Spanish facades and courtyards of historic houses, you will walk along the "Cassaro" to conclude your tour at the Quattro Canti or Teatro del Sole, an elegant baroque structure.
